PRESS RELEASE

MGP business focus broadens

Thursday 24 January 2008. MGP Ltd is the new name for Medendum Group Publishing Ltd to reflect the change in business focus by the company. In recent years MGP has seen huge growth in the delivery of innovative projects through its medical education division, Connectmedical. This growth has been underpinned by MGP's well-respected publications— Guidelines, Guidelines in Practice, and Medendum—alongside the eGuidelines.co.uk website.

MGP's aim is to provide relevant, timely and practical information to support healthcare professionals in delivering the best possible patient care.

MGP and Connectmedical specialise in reaching primary care clinical decision makers, payers and influencers via high-quality publications and projects.
