

PRESS RELEASE

New Editor for Connectmedical

Connectmedical has appointed Julia Morris as Editor. Connectmedical is a division of Medendium Group Publishing Ltd, publishers of Guidelines, Guidelines in Practice and Medendium.

Julia brings 4 years of writing and editing experience to the Connectmedical team, and is the first and contributing author of several scientific papers. Julia will provide editorial services for Connectmedical educational projects based on Guidelines and Guidelines in Practice.

This appointment follows the internal promotion of Guy Foord-Kelcey to Managing Editor. Guy's role will involve leading the Connectmedical editorial team, and managing the Guidelines handbook and eGuidelines.co.uk website.

Connectmedical specialises in positioning your brand through clinical guidance.
